DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 5, 8, 9, 12-16, 18, 20-22, 25, 27, and 30-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sorenson et al. USP 5,327,700.

See the attached marked up drawing figure sheet 2 of 4 of Sorenson et al. depicting the claimed features.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3, 4, 10, 11, 17, 19, 23, 24, 26, 28, and 29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sorenson et al. (above).

Sorenson et al. teaches the claimed invention (including their indicated tension members) except for the various locations and orientations of the tension members. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice as to the location and orientation of the tension members based on the particular design and layout of the struts of the device at hand. The mere placement and orientation of a tension member would depend on the application at hand and how the individual device is meant to function.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

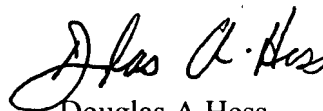

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
